LIBRARY MEDIA CENTER HANDBOOK

Rob Mason, Teacher-Librarian

I. Mission

The mission of the library media program is to ensure that students and staff are effective users of ideas and information.

We support the mission of the DeKalb County School System which is to for a collaborative effort between home and school that maximizes students' social and academic potential, preparing them to compete in a global society. We also support the mission of Henderson Middle School which is to be "highly motivated for success through the active involvement of parents, school, and community".

E. Collaborative Planning

Planning is the key to a successful Library Media Center project. The media specialist and teacher working together make a significant instructional team. Teachers can request a time during their planning period to collaborate with the media specialist.

F. Class Visits/Scheduling

The Library is available throughout the day for teachers to schedule their classes here. Teachers who wish to schedule time in the Library should confer with the Teacher-Librarian to plan collaboratively in order to incorporate Library resources into the lesson. All classes must be scheduled in advance and teachers must be present in the Library with their students during their scheduled visits.

G. Sending students

Teachers may send up to four (4) students at a time with a hall pass to the Library for research and/or book check-out. Each student should have an individual pass.

H. Helen Ruffin Reading Bowl Club

The Reading Bowl Club meets each week in the library. Students read books from the current Georgia Book Award list of nominees. Students attend meetings to practice questions in preparation for the Helen Ruffin Reading Bowl Competitions beginning in January. A team of 10 students is selected from club members to represent HMS at the competitions

IV. Copyright Information

All teachers are required by the DeKalb County School Board to adhere to the Federal Copyright Law as it pertains to educational institutions. The Teacher-Librarian is the building level contact person regarding copyright questions. Teachers have the responsibility to become familiar with the copyright guidelines and are accountable for any violations of the copyright law. Violation of the copyright is a serious offense. Do not assume that copying materials is legal if it is not acknowledged on the resource. If you are uncertain, ask publishers for permission to copy. The Teacher-Librarian is happy to assist you with this.
